DUNA ROMANI

LUMA – NEW

PATHS TOWARDS

THE FUTURE

»DUNA ROMANI LUMA – NEW PATHS TOWARDS THE FUTURE«

INTEGRATED TRANS-BORDER COOPERATION OF ROMA INITIATIVES AND STAKEHOLDERS IN THE DANUBE REGION

STARTING POINT AND CAUSE

With more than 6 million people, Roma societies are the biggest minority within the Eastern Danube region. They are predominantly marginalized and discriminated. Due to the multitude of challenges for Eastern and Western countries and in light of lacking success of integration measures so far, we have to develop an integrated long-term strategy to solve these problems.

AIM

It takes joint efforts to cope with this task. So with this conference, the organizers aim at building bridges between Roma initiatives in East and West, at strengthening existing partnerships and projects, and moreover at establishing a mutual network.

INVITATION

Hereby we invite all Roma NGO activists and all governmental, supranational, and church-related representatives as well as representatives of the European Union to take an active part in our conference. Especially representatives of the Roma societies are invited to present their opinions and ideas.

OPEN SPACE CONFERENCE

Due to the fact that we want to establish new networks among Roma initiatives, we chose the format »Open Space«. As a methodology for self-organizing conference tracks, it relies on participation by people being passionate about discussing the topics of our conference »Duna Romani Luma¹«. There is no preplanned list of topics, but time slots and a space in the main meeting room where interested participants propose topics. Thus the group itself creates the working agenda, as individuals post their issues in bulletin board style.
